

North Dakota DECA College Division

Code of Conduct

North Dakota Delta Epsilon Chi (College DECA) members have an excellent reputation. Your conduct at every DECA function should make a positive contribution to extending that reputation. Listed here are rules of conduct for the all state and national activities. All members will be expected to:

1. Behave in a courteous and respectful manner, refraining from language and actions that might bring discredit upon themselves, their school, other delegates, advisors, or upon DECA.
2. Obey all local, state, and federal laws.
3. Avoid conduct not conducive to an educational conference. Such conduct includes, but is not limited to, actions disrupting the businesslike atmosphere, association with non-conference individuals, or activities that endanger self or others (running in the General Sessions, standing on chairs, using laser points during workshops, bodysurfing at dances, etc.)
4. Keep their advisors informed of their activities and whereabouts at all times. Accidents, injuries, and illnesses must be reported to the local or state advisors immediately.
5. Avoid alcoholic beverages and controlled or illegal substances of any form. These items must not be used or possessed at any time by anyone under the age of 21, or under any circumstances. Use or possession of such substances may subject the delegate to criminal prosecution.
6. Act as guests of the hotel and conference center. Delegates must obey the rules of these facilities. The facilities have the right to ask a delegate or delegates to leave. Do not throw anything out of windows or over balconies. Do not run down hallways. Noise should be kept at a reasonable volume, especially in the hotels. Remember there are other guests in the hotels that have rights as well. Trash (this includes pizza boxes, bottles, cans, etc.) must be placed in the proper receptacles and not left on guest room or meeting room floors. Individuals or chapters responsible for damages to any property or furnishings will be responsible for its repair or replacement. Local advisors are responsible for the supervision of delegate conduct.

Disregarding or Violating the Code of Conduct

Delegates who disregard or violate this code will be subject to disciplinary action, including, but not limited to, forfeiture of privileges to attend further events, dismissal from the conference, and being sent home at your own expense. Parents and/or guardians of minors will be notified and North Dakota DECA reserves the right to notify law enforcement.
