

North Dakota DECA Outstanding New Member Recognition

Each chapter is encouraged to select a “NEW” member of DECA and recognize them for their achievements at the stat conference. A “New” member must be a first year member of DECA.

- ◆ The selection may be completed differently at each chapter level.
- ◆ One name is to be submitted to the state advisor no later than February 12, 2010.
- ◆ A one-page letter of nomination for the “Outstanding New Member” award may accompany the name submitted.
- ◆ All nominees will be presented with a certificate at the state conference
- ◆ One New Member will be selected based on the one-page letter submitted and will be recognized as the North Dakota Outstanding New Member.
- ◆ This North Dakota Outstanding New Member may represent North Dakota in the Leadership Development Academy at the national conference.
