

NORTH DAKOTA DECA FALL LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

October 9-10, 2011

ND State Officers will be your guide as you ASPIRE HIGHER during the 2011 DECA Fall Leadership Conference. They will help you MOVE IT as you prepare for your year as a local leader of DECA. State Officers Morgan, Jordi, Courtney, Paige, Callie, Mara and Austin want to make this a great conference with the ultimate goal: ASPIRE HIGHER.

Brandon Lee White is a speaker, actor, model, dancer, and entrepreneur. He will move you inside and out. Brandon will be the featured keynote speaker at the Fall Leadership Conference, sharing his answer to the question, "What do I want to do with my life?" He will help you connect your passion and make the best decisions. Brandon will help you prepare for ballroom dancing competition on Sunday evening. He will be conducting workshops on Monday morning as well. In his words "Let it Move!"

Micah Melling from Clinton High School in Missouri has been a DECA member since his freshman year of high school – working his way up to Missouri state president and now on to Central Region Vice President. Other than his dedication to the organization that had "such a profound impact on me," Micah has participated in unique programs such as the Freshman Mentor Program, Critics and Awards Program, Missouri Boys' State – Legislative Assistant to the Governor. A four year member of the Clinton HS Baseball Team and a three-year letterman in the sport, Micah is eager to meet the member of North Dakota DECA.

Why attend North Dakota DECA's 2011 Fall Leadership Conference?

- Meet the 2011-2012 State Officer Action Team
- Learn more about leadership; primarily about leading your DECA Chapter to Success
- Learn about competition; even better get the experience of competition
- Hear from local business professionals
- Network with DECA members from across the state
- Participate in the community service project
- Learn to dance, ballroom style

Check with your local advisor about attending the "Move It" Conference!